

Myron S. Isaacs, 77, a Civil Rights Lawyer

Myron S. Isaacs, a lawyer who campaigned for civil and human rights, died of pneumonia Tuesday at White Plains Hospital Medical Center. He was 77 years old and lived in White Plains.

Mr. Issacs, the son of former Manhattan Borough President Stanley M. Isaacs, was a founder and former president of Westchester Legal Services.

A graduate of Dartmouth College and Yale Law School, he was a former official of the Hamilton-Madison Settlement House on the Lower East Side of Manhattan, the Correctional Association of New York, the White Plains Human Rights Commission, the Westchester Chapter of the American Jewish Committee and the Westchester Citizens' Housing Council.

He is survived by his wife, the former Helen S. Salant, of White Plains; two daughters, Jane Toussaint of Paris, and Leni Boorstin of Studio City, Calif.; two sons, Stanley S., of Palo Alto, Calif., and John D., of Washington; a sister, Helen Herrick of Manhattan, and nine grandchildren.

ISAACS—Myron S. On Sept. 13, 1988 in White Plains, NY after 77 years and after a lifetime characterized by compassionate caring for the less fortunate in society. Husband for 51 years of Helen Salant Isaacs; father of four children: Stanley, Jane Isaacs Toussaint, John and Leni Boorstin, grandfather of nine. Private funeral Fri. Date of memorial service to be announced. Donations in his memory may be made to Stanley M. Isaacs Neighborhood Center or Hamilton-Madison House in NYC.

ISAACS—Myron. The Board of Directors, staff and neighbors of Hamilton-Madison Settlement House mourn the passing of Myron Isaacs, long time Board Member and friend of the Settlement. The Hamilton-Madison House community extends its sympathy to his family.

Elizabeth Howard, President
Frank T. Modica, Executive Dir

ISAACS—Myron. The Board of the Stanley M. Isaacs Neighborhood Center mourns the passing of a friend and founder. He continued the family tradition of service and caring that strengthened us and the community. Our deepest sympathies to his family.

ISAACS—Myron. Jewish Community Center of White Plains records with sorrow the passing of its cherished member and conveys sincere condolences to his bereaved family.

Mark L. Winer, Rabbi
John L. Laemie, President

Deaths

ISAACS—Myron S. The Board and staff of the Correctional and Osborne Associations mourn the loss of Myron S. Isaacs, a dedicated board member of the two organizations for many years. His generous spirit and passion for justice will remain a source of inspiration as we continue our work. We extend our heartfelt sympathies to his family.

ISAACS—Myron S. The trustees of the Baron de Hirsch Fund mourn the passing of their fellow member who was so deeply committed to the furtherance of human and civil rights in Israel. Our deepest sympathy to his family. On my own behalf, Mike was always a patient and able counselor. He was unfailingly helpful and I always found his advice sound and humane.

Ezra P. Mager, President

ISAACS—Myron. The Board and Staff of Westchester Legal Services mourn the loss of Myron Isaacs and extend their condolences to his family. As a founder, past President and member of our board since 1967, he was steadfast in the struggle for equal justice for the poor. His compassionate commitment continues to inspire us.

ISAACS—Myron S. The Westchester Chapter of the American Jewish Committee mourns the passing of Myron Isaacs, long time leader of our Chapter, and a champion of human and civil rights for all. Our deepest sympathies to his family.

Joy Greenhouse, President
Ann Tourk, Director